TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some tonic. IRON enters into almost every physiological process for those who need building up.

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it has no equal, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion, does not blacken or injure the teeth, causes headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. G. H. BINKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exceeds all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it." Dr. W. N. WATERS, 1219 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

Genuine has above Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

THE RAILROAD ACCIDENT MORE DISASTROUS THAN FIRST REPORTED.

A Corrected List of the Dead Places. Number Killed at This Year in a Railroad Wounded at One Hundred and Fourteen. Further Details of the Wreck—Notes.

BOSTON, March 16.—The second day but adds to the horror of the awful wreck at South street bridge. Crape flutters from over a score of doors in Dedham, Roslindale and West Roxbury, and the sad herald of death will hang from many another ere the work of identification is completed. The number of wounded, as previously stated, was far below the actual number, which is now placed at 114. Of this number probably twenty will die from their injuries.

The corrected list of victims makes thirty-nine the number of those that were killed outright or have died of injuries. The dead are: Assistant Conductor Myron Tilden, of Dedham; Miss Lizzie Walton, of Dedham; Miss Lizzie Mandeville, of Dedham; Edward E. Norris, of Dedham; Mrs. Kennard, of Roslindale; Mrs. Harkins; Patrolman Waldo B. Lailor, of Division 13; William S. Strong, 772 Broadway, South Boston; Miss L. H. Price, of Dedham; Miss Barry; Miss Hormisdas Cardinal, of Roslindale; Mary Murphy; Alice Burnett, sixteen years old; Mrs. Cappel, of Central station; Mrs. Cornell, Washington street, Roslindale; George Metcalf, druggist, 39 Tremont street, Boston; Edgar M. Snow, of West Roxbury; William Johnson, violinist, of Roslindale; Brakeman Smith, of West Roxbury; James Gates, of Roslindale; S. S. Houghton, of Roslindale; William Snow, of West Roxbury; H. F. Johnston, of Boston; O. Henry Gay, of Center street, Roxbury; Henry Stone, of West Roxbury; Mrs. Sarah E. Ellis, of Medfield; Miss Norris, of West Roxbury; Webster Drake, conductor, of Dedham; Mr. Adams, of Roslindale; Mrs. M. L. Odierne, of Dover, N. H., employed on Summer street, Boston; — Barrack, of Corinth street, West Roxbury; Miss Swallow, of Roslindale; Miss Ida Adams, aged sixteen years, of Roslindale; Rose Welsh, of Park street, West Roxbury; Albert S. Johnson, aged forty years, of Roslindale; Peter Swabin, tailor, aged forty-five years, of Roslindale; Emma O. Hill, of Roslindale; Hattie J. Dudley, of Roslindale.

The latest information now places the number of injured at 114. Their names are as follows: Alfred Swallow, of Roslindale, injured in the spine, injuries permanent; Joseph Barak, Salem street, Roslindale, injured about the head; Dwight P. Staniels, of Roslindale, cut and bruised; Miss Eva Frieze, Willow street, West Roxbury, right leg broken; William Houghton, of Roslindale, seriously injured internally and cut on the head; Gottlieb Sessler, Orange street, Roslindale, badly bruised; Daniel Roundy, of South Roslindale, badly injured internally, probably fatally; Mrs. Emma Ames, of West Roxbury, injured internally and severely contused; Edward Richards, of West Roxbury, ankle sprained; Annie Cronin, of West Roxbury, face badly cut and bruised; Fannie Kane, of Spring Street station, wrist injured; James Moffat, of Roslindale, head injured; — Norman, of Roslindale, slightly injured about the head and shoulders; Frank A. Davidson, of West Roxbury, badly shaken up; Mr. Oedling, of Roslindale, scalp wounds and injury to the back; H. H. Hinckley, of Roslindale, face badly cut and artery under the chin cut; Mr. Jacobson, of Roslindale, arm contused; A. R. Steib, of Roslindale, injuries to head; Mr. Denarree, of Roslindale, injuries to chest, back and head; Mr. Harkins, of Roslindale, injuries to neck, shoulder and head; Mr. Haligan, of Roslindale, injuries to back and leg; Mr. Weimar, of Roslindale, injuries to leg and knees; Albert E. Young, of Boston, arm cut; — Young, leg broken and badly injured; an unknown man with arm severed.

The wreck as it lies, makes the most complete and appalling ruin ever witnessed. Six cars went down with the bridge, but so thoroughly ground to pieces are three of them that it is difficult to believe that more than three cars fell into the chasm, and were it not for the fact that there are six car roofs, three in the street with the other debris of cars, and three scattered along the track, where they were shot by the momentum of the crash, it would never be known that more than three cars were destroyed. The other three cars of the train were badly shattered and derailed, but passed safely over the bridge and remained standing on the edge of the embankment.

The cars that went down with the bridge were numbers 87, 80, 54, 81, 82 and the smoker. It is doubtful if any occupants escaped alive from No. 87, as it went down first and was literally ground to pieces beneath the other five. Cars 80 and 54 were similarly ground to pieces, but more of their occupants escaped alive. The greatest number of casualties next to 87 occurred in the smoker, which turned completely over and struck on its roof. Cars 54, 81 and 82, as they took the awful leap one after another into the chasm, struck against the opposite abutment with such terrific force that the roof of each car, being just high enough to clear the masonry, was ripped off and slid along the track for over a hundred feet. Beneath the wreck of the train lies the iron bridge, which broke from its abutments so clean that not even a bolt was left.

Professor George F. Swain, instructor of civil engineering and hydraulics at the institute of technology, and a specialist on bridge construction, has made a close examination of the bridge where the terrible accident occurred. He is reported as saying that the floor beam hangers were defective, and had been largely eaten away by rust; that the quality of the material was imperfect in some places, and that several portions of the bridge showed evidence of faulty design in the trusses.

It is an interesting fact that this tragedy occurred within a few hundred yards of the scene of another tragedy which some twenty years ago excited all of New England. This was the murder of Laura Joyce and her little brother, which was committed in Bussey's woods. The girl, who was some fifteen years old, had gone into the woods to pick berries. She was then attacked by some person, and her brother evidently came to her rescue. The exact facts were never known, but both were found dead, the girl having been criminally assaulted. Public suspicion attached itself to the son of a prominent family living in a handsome villa near by. He disappeared, as did the washerwoman employed by the family, and neither have ever been heard of since.

Governor Hoadly an Ohio Man.

New York, March 16.—At the regular meeting of the Ohio society last night, ex-Governor Hoadly was surrounded by many former Ohio people, who welcomed him as a New Yorker and a member of the Ohio society. Gen. Thomas Ewing introduced Mr. Hoadly, who said in reply that as he was yet only an inchoate member, he would not attempt a speech, but he continued: "Although not an Ohioan by birth, for I remember being baptized in New York fifty years ago, yet Ohio was the home of my boyhood, and I am attached to it by the ties of manhood and the trusts the state has conferred on me. It is a chestnut, I know. I have said it before, but I repeat it now. Ohio is God's own country. God's providence smiles on it and on the loving hearts of her people. No commonwealth in the thirty-eight clings more strongly to the memories of her citizens. I come to New York, the home of my fathers, to live and to die, but I remain none the less in heart an Ohioan."

Dynamite Cartridges.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., March 16.—On Saturday night three men were detected in an attempt to enter Nelson & Miller's knitting mills, and were driven away by the watchman. Afterward the watchman found several dynamite cartridges in the boiler room. The mills employ non-union men, and this has led to constant annoyance by outsiders.

Arrival of Captain Eads's Body.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 16.—The body of Capt. Eads arrived here from Nassau yesterday, accompanied by his wife and his daughter, Mrs. Hazard. They were met here by J. F. How, his son-in-law. They will leave on a private car for St. Louis this evening. The funeral will take place there on Thursday.

OMAHA, Neb., March 16.—John Sanderson, a notorious "tough," of Broken Nob, Neb., stabbed his younger brother Samuel to the heart yesterday in a quarrel over a trivial matter.

AMERICAN CARDINALS.

THEY HOLD A RECEPTION AT THE PALACE OF THE PROPAGANDA.

A Scene of Great Brilliance—Americans Present—Germany Will Never Attack France—De Lesseps Gets Back to Paris. Emin Bey Heard From—Notes.

ROME, March 16.—The American cardinals held a reception yesterday at the Palace of the Propaganda. Both Cardinal Taschereau and Cardinal Gibbons were attired in the magna cappa or great robe, and each wore the red beretta. An immense throng of people paid their respects, causing the reception to last longer than was at first intended. Among those present were members of the nobility, representing foreign powers, statesmen and ecclesiastics of the various religious orders, besides a large delegation of ladies, which was all the more remarkable as it was the first time that the fair sex has ever been permitted to attend a reception of this kind.

The scene was one of great brilliancy, which was greatly enhanced by the toilets of the ladies, the brilliant uniforms of the diplomats and officers, and the dazzling splendor of the habits of cardinals, all of whom were in full robes. Cardinal Gibbons looked exceedingly well after his short vacation at the seaside, and appeared very much pleased with the attention shown him. The conversation was conducted principally in French and Italian, and sparkled with wit. American affairs generally were discussed, and many allusions were made to Baltimore.

Among the Americans present were Mrs. Jerry and Miss Jerry, of Charleston; Miss McHamlin, of Chicago; the Rev. Michael O'Farrell, of New York; Mrs. William Stokes, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Fulton, Miss Pope, Miss Donovan, Mrs. Bigelow, Mrs. Carew, all of New York; Rev. P. J. Donohue, secretary to Cardinal Gibbons; Louis Garthe, of Baltimore; Miss Mary Lee, daughter of Gen. Robert Lee, and Mrs. Johnson, niece of the late President Andrew Johnson. Probably the most distinguished ecclesiastic present was Cardinal Prince Hohenlohe, of the church of Santa Calisto, who seldom attends receptions of any kind, except those in connection with the duties of his office.

A reception was held to-day. At the secret consistory neither the McGlynn matter nor the labor question in America were discussed. The pope's allocution was very brief. His holiness was in the best of health, having entirely recovered from his late attack of sickness. The consistory, which was held in the Sala Ducale, lasted two and one-eighth hours. The public consistory at which Cardinal Gibbons is to be heard will be held on Thursday.

De Lesseps Back in Paris.

PARIS, March 16.—A large number of the intimate friends of the Count De Lesseps met him at the railway station on his return from Berlin last night. In an interview he expressed the greatest pleasure at the kind reception accorded him by everybody in Berlin. As a result of conversations he had with Emperor William and Prince Bismarck, he said, he could affirm that there would be no war. The emperor told him Sunday that Germany would never attack France. The empress asked him to leave the plan of the Panama canal with her. Prince Bismarck spoke highly of M. Horbette, the French ambassador to Berlin, who, the prince says, is making himself beliked by everyone.

The Czar's Escape.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 16.—The imperial court yesterday attended the funeral service before the tomb of the late czar in the cathedral. Services were held in all the churches and at the shrine over the spot where the czar was killed. In the evening the city was illuminated in honor of the accession of Alexander III. All the theatres, grog shops and other places of resort of the people were closed. The leader of the plot against the life of the czar has been arrested. Six students have also been arrested, having in their possession a lot of explosives. They were awaiting the coming of the czar on his way to the cathedral, to take part in the anniversary services.

Emin Bey Heard From.

ZANZIBAR, March 15.—Advices from Uganda, dated January 24, say that Dr. Junker's caravan reached Emin Bey safely, and that a messenger returned with a quantity of ivory. Emin was well.

Young Blaine Goes to New York.

NEW YORK, March 16.—James G. Blaine, Jr., the son of the Maine statesman, who exploit in the matrimonial line was recently the subject of newspaper comment, and who subsequently attached himself to the staff of a Pittsburgh newspaper, is tired of journalism, and is to begin to-morrow a career as a stock broker. He has entered the employ of the stock broking firm of S. Morris, Pryor & Co., of Broadway, and will assume his new duties to-morrow forenoon. One of the partners in the concern, which is quite well known in Wall street circles, stated to-day to a reporter that two since and told him he was "sick of Pittsburgh and newspaper work there," and desired a broader field for the exercise of his abilities. He would like to come to New York and live, and if Mr. Pryor could find an "opening" for him, he would endeavor to show himself worthy of employ. Mr. Pryor finally told him to come to work to-morrow morning, and Mr. Blaine thereupon made his arrangements for giving up his abode in the smoky city. He will be paid a good salary by his new employers.

Houston, Texas, Gets the Canning Works.

HOUSTON, Tex., March 16.—The Texas Cattlemen's association have decided to locate their projected large refrigerator canning and packing establishment at Houston. There has been great competition among the cities of Texas for this establishment. The cattlemen considered the shipping to and railroad advantages here superior to any they could obtain elsewhere. The citizens have given 500 acres of land and promised subscriptions to $25,000 worth of stock. It is expected that this will make Houston the most important cattle market in the south. The transportation of beef to England will be conducted on a large scale. The works will be built at once.

RESOLUTIONS ON BEECHER'S DEATH.

Action Taken By the Philadelphia Conference of Ministers.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16.—The Philadelphia conference of Baptist ministers unanimously adopted the following resolutions: "While attempting no critical or full estimate of Mr. Beecher's genius, character and wonderful life work, we hold in lasting regard his pre-eminent gifts of mind and heart and his abundant and effective services to his country, to his race, and to his God. Although not agreeing with all of his published teachings, we gratefully recognize the unselfishness and integrity of his purpose and the uplifting power of his many-sided ministry. We admire his great catholicity of spirit, which, looking upon humanity as the object of its love, rose far above the bounds of sect, and rejoiced in the fruits of Christian life wherever found."

At a meeting of Methodist ministers the following resolution was offered by Rev. J. S. J. McConnell:

"RESOLVED, That the members of the Methodist Episcopal church in Philadelphia and vicinity, share, in common with other branches of the church of Jesus Christ, in the general sorrow occasioned by the decease of that great and eloquent minister of the gospel, the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, late and for so many years, the honored pastor of the Plymouth church, Brooklyn, and we hereby beg permission to assure his family of our profound Christian sympathy with them in their bereavement."

Rev. S. Barnes criticised the resolution as indicating the approval by the Methodist church by Mr. Beecher's views. He stated that while Mr. Beecher had started out as an orthodox minister, he had of late years repudiated the doctrines of blood atonement and of the resurrection of the body. Mr. Beecher also believed in probation after death, and practically in universal salvation. He had been a great man, and had done great things as a patriot and in the emancipation of the slaves, but Mr. Barnes did not consider him an orthodox minister. There was no disposition to prolong their mission, and after Mr. Barnes had finished his remarks, the resolution was put to vote. Mr. McConnell explaining that it did not imply unqualified endorsement of all Mr. Beecher's theological views. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 20 to 9.

Hillsboro Votes Prohibition.

HILLSBORO, O., March 16.—The vote yesterday on the question of closing the saloons in this little city was a surprise to even the most pronounced temperance. The result was an overwhelming defeat of the liquor men, the vote standing 577 to 188. Last night the temperance people held a rousing jollification. Cannons boomed until a late hour, and all the church and school bells were rung. Praise meetings were held at the various churches, all of which were largely attended by the best elements of the city's population. Never before in her history has the county seat of old Highland witnessed such an occasion. The result has been eagerly awaited not only here but all through the state. The whisky element is completely dumfounded, now that they realize that like the Chinese, they must "go."

Daniel Manning Departs.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Ex-Secretary Daniel Manning sailed for Europe on the steamer Arizona, this morning. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter. Mr. Manning said the voyage was taken in the hope that the tonic of the sea air would benefit his health. He was feeling strong and the cold he caught in Washington had almost entirely left him. His old complaint had not troubled him for six months. While in Europe he might do a little for the new bank by looking out for suitable places to locate agencies or branches, but that would be only in his private capacity and not as an officer of the bank. C. N. Jordan sailed on the same ship.

The Deal Made and Gould Left Out.

BALTIMORE, March 16.—From sources inside the Baltimore & Ohio, it is said that the deal practically has been made, and with about the same parties to the agreement that were given to the public last week. There has been something of a change in the plan of negotiating the transaction, but the results will be about the same. People who are interested in the West Point terminal company and the Richmond & Danville system of railroads are in it. Jay Gould is not in it. The transaction does not contemplate the abandonment of the telegraph, the express or the parlor car business of the Baltimore & Ohio.

Brutal Murderer Captured.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 16.—Detective O'Halloran, of Chicago, arrived here yesterday morning on the Manitoba train, in company with Frank Treemark, whom he arrested in Winnipeg, for the murder of John Pewaukee, in Chicago, about one year ago. Treemark, Pewaukee, Edward Pulsky and another man were playing cards, and Pewaukee retiring a heavy winner, was followed by Treemark and Pulsky. The last named held him while Treemark cut his throat. Treemark is in jail here waiting a requisition. He refuses to talk.

An Editor Causes a Sensation.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 16.—A communication from Editor Rosewater from the Omaha Bee, to the speaker of the house, was read in that body yesterday, and caused quite a sensation. It charges members of the judiciary committee with receiving bribes from gamblers and others to defeat the anti-gambling bill, and the Omaha charter bill and offers to prove the assertion. A committee of investigation was appointed.

Decatur, Ala., March 16.—The Decatur Land Improvement and Fertilizer company yesterday closed a ten year contract with the Chemical Charcoal company for a daily supply of 6,000 bushels of charcoal. This coal is to be used in the company's furnaces for the manufacture of the highest grade of charcoal iron. The furnaces will be built at once by Gordon, Stroubel & Laurean, of Philadelphia. Work commences next week on the furnaces, the Iron Bridge Building company's works, Iven & Sons' factories and the cotton compress; 1,000 hands will be employed in these operations.

Mysterious Sheep Disease.

PARIS, Ky., March 16.—Noah Boone, of Old Union neighborhood, has lost in the past two weeks more than one hundred sheep from some unknown disease.

WEDNESDAY EVE., MARCH 16, 1887.

The local optionists are jollifying over their big victory at Hillsboro, O. The vote stood 577 to 188 in favor of prohibition.

SENATOR J. C. S. BLACKBURN will address the Confederate Memorial Association at Paris on County Court Day in April.

CONSISTENCY, thou art not a jewel, else the "owners and editors" of the Republican might hurt themselves in the scramble they would make to get you within their grasp.

OVER $200,000,000 worth of tobacco is annually consumed in this country by smokers and chewers. People will have their cigars and their "fine cut," and the supply is not very apt to exceed the demand.

THE Tennessee Legislature has passed a bill forbidding barbers to carry on their business on Sundays. The effort to enforce it will likely result as did the effort to enforce the Sunday law in this State a few years ago.

JUDGE HINES will, in the April number of the Southern Bivouac, continue his account of the operations of the Confederates in the northwest. The April paper he devotes to an account of Beal's movements on the lakes, his arrest and execution.

TOMMIE and Johnnie should remember that the BULLETIN has made no claims whatever about employing "home mechanics." Its articles were aimed to expose the Republican's hypocritical cant on this subject. The Republican's columns show that the shots went home.

AN exchange says that the "real estate owners in Urbana, O., have engaged a large corps of real estate agents and all the newspapers of the city to boom the place into prosperity." If the real estate owners of Maysville would do something of that kind we might work up a boom here. "Strike while the iron is hot."

THE "pewter plates" and the "pewter plated writers" are evidently getting in their work on tampering Tommie and brilliant Hawthorn, who both "served a faithful apprenticeship to their profession" before they started the Republican, and, of course, are expected to do a little better than a fellow who knows no more about the newspaper business" than the chump who struck the late Billy Patterson.

FROM the exalted pedestal upon which their conceit and egotism has placed them, Tommie and Johnnie, of the Republican, look down with supreme contempt upon the editor of the BULLETIN, and are blazing away at a "Court street chump" and a "horny-handed lawyer" for getting up our "able editorials." Fire away, boys, but after while you may learn you've been shooting blank cartridges.

THE BULLETIN is having lots of fun of late watching the "owners and editors" of the Republican as they prance and cavort around to avoid the punching they are getting from all quarters. Tommie and Johnnie jump one way and they come up against the Knoll business. They turn and are confronted by their unjust and uncalled-for attack upon one of Maysville's most respected citizens. Then there is the gas controversy which haunts them in their dreams. If they get any sympathy, they will have to suck it from the tips of their fingers. They both "served a faithful apprenticeship to their profession," you see, and ought to know just how to carry on a newspaper.

LAGRANGE, KY., has got the natural gas fever, too. A well was sunk there for water thirty years ago. Instead of finding water, the borers struck gas. The flow has been constant and continuous ever since, although the well was partially plugged up. Recently it has been re-opened to some depth, and a company has been formed at Cincinnati to develop the territory in and about Lagrange. The geological formation is of the Lower Devonian and Upper Silurian limestone, just the strata, it is claimed, in which gas is found. Maysville shouldn't lag behind other cities. The discovery of natural gas in or near town would double the value of the real estate here, and give our city a boom.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Catching Kansas fever?
Next Saturday week—and the primary. James Hood leaves for Colorado in a few weeks.

William Dameron is rustivating amongst Concord friends this week.

Mrs. Wheeler has moved to Covedale, Lewis County, Ky., with her son-in-law, S. B. Wadsworth.

Frank Lepage, an old time Aberdeen boy, was in town this week. He now resides in Ironton, O.

George W. Schlitz and Buck Jones started for Wichita, Kansas, Monday night. May success attend them.

If you desire to elect an able, conscientious councilman vote for Oscar Bricker, a man who will always be for the town's interest.

T. F. Hill has just received a large invoice of meat, which is selling at bottom figures. He has always on hand a large line of staple and fancy groceries.

Friday night, April 1st, the commencement exercises of Aberdeen High School will be held in the M. E. Church. The best musical talent in the county will be on hand to help make it a happy event.

Our old friend, William Hood, Second Vice President of the building association, is noted for his prompt attention to the business connected with the association, which we are happy to state is in a flourishing condition.

Jeems Monroe Sutton, our efficient Street Commissioner, is having a new street map done to our streets, and, by the way, showed us a photograph of General Sherman a few days since which the old General sent to him. He served under Sherman in the late unpleasant war, and delights to talk of this old commander.

On Friday and Saturday nights next the scholars of the High School will give a supper, the proceeds to be used for an entertainment at the close of school, April 1st. Those who have the interest of the school at heart should assist all in their power to make it a success.

Our schools, as conducted this winter, can be pointed to with pride, as their watchword has been "Progress," thanks to Professor Lawwill and his corps of able assistants.

The M. E. Church was full to its utmost capacity last Sunday night, the occasion being Professor Lawwill's lecture on the "Inspiration of the Bible." He held his audience spell bound for one and one-half hours. His masterly handling of the subject proved conclusively that he knew what he was talking about. Mr. Lawwill is a young man whom Huntington Township should be proud of. He is in every sense of the word a self-made man, and one who is destined to reach the top round of the ladder of success. As an educator, he ranks high, and a scholar of more than ordinary ability, his lecture proved him to be.

AN AFFECTIONATE CAT.

A Maltese Thomas Which Shows Decidedly Canine Traits of Fidelity.

It is universally held that the cat cannot experience sufficient affection for a person to develop the passion of jealousy, which every one knows is common enough in the canine race. I am prepared to produce at least one cat that will dispute this aspersion of its kind. It is a superb maltese thomas of the purest breed and bears the name of Frisco, conferred upon it as a diminutive for San Francisco. It has been brought up from kittenhood by its present mistress, and has developed all the traits of fidelity common to the dog. It follows at its owner's heels about the house and even attempts to pursue her when she goes out. It watches for her return at the door, and after any prolonged absence exhibits sulkiness at what it evidently regards as unjustifiable neglect. The only period of the day or night at which it voluntarily leaves her side is in the morning, when it scratches at the maid's door to wake her up, and fawns upon her for breakfast. At all other times it avoids the girl and will permit no fondling by her.

A few days ago a stray kitten wandered into the house and the women fed and fondled it and permitted it the run of the place. Frisco was frantic and gave it battle at once. The kitten found the handsome basket in which Frisco sleeps on a sheepskin mat, and coolly took possession of it. The owner of the basket tormented the air with back fence lamentations. The interloper was reclaimed next day, much to the satisfaction of Frisco, who had spent most of the time spitting at it or sulking in a dark corner, where he could watch it, growling incessantly. Since the fateful hour at which the kitten had slept in his basket he has refused to enter it. When his mistress puts him in he speedily escapes and hides himself. He follows her about as usual, but whenever she makes the usual approach to him he utters a petulant mew of protest. The cat is as wild with jealousy as any woman ever was and is perfectly feminine in the manifestations of the passion.

He is at present being fed on tenderloin steaks and broiled quail, in the hope that he will consent to make up and be friends again. But he resents all advances, though he leaves nothing of the quail but the bones.—Alfred Trumble in New York News.

A Divided Church.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., March 16.—There is a division in the United Brethren church of Fayetteville, a portion being energetically opposed to secret societies. On Saturday evening the church at Fayetteville invited Rev. Mr. Keiter, pastor of the church in Chambersburg, which is opposed to the societies, to fill their pulpit. The congregation is divided on the prevailing question, and the non-antagonistic parties determined to prevent Mr. Keiter from proceeding with the services. The church was entered and the lock changed. When the sexton endeavored to open up he could not. About 400 people surrounded the church and sang "Hold the Fort." Rev. Mr. Keiter mounted the steps and made a brief address, but was not allowed to preach, and he, with his friends, departed, leaving the friends of secret societies in possession of the church.

Bell Telephone Suit Opened at Boston. BOSTON, March 16.—The government began its suit against the Bell Telephone company in the United States circuit court before Judge Colt. The suit is to annul two patents held by A. G. Bell, on the ground that he was not the original inventor, and that the patents were fraudulently obtained. The defense moved to be allowed to demur and plead at the same session. The sitting was adjourned before Judge Colt's decision in this point. The counsel for the government were ex-Solicitor General Goode, William C. Strawbridge, of Philadelphia, and Jeff Chandler, of Washington. For the telephone company, J. J. Storow, and Chauncey Smith.

Officers of the Missouri Pacific. NEW YORK, March 16.—At yesterday's meeting of directors, Jay Gould was re-elected president of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain railway companies. George J. Gould was chosen acting president of the Missouri Pacific, and J. H. H. Clark vice president and general manager, succeeding the late Mr. Hoxie. All the other officers of both companies were re-elected, and George J. Gould was made vice president of the Iron Mountain.

Accident to a Sleighing Party. DOVER, N. H., March 16.—Mrs. Samuel Hoitt and Mrs. Susan Dow, both of Lee, were thrown from their sleigh in Madbury last night. Mrs. Hoitt sustained fatal injuries to her spine, and Mrs. Dow had an arm broken besides receiving other injuries. Mrs. Hoitt has been unconscious since the accident.

Imitating Henry George. NEW YORK, March 16.—The resignation or practical retirement from their pulpits of Dr. McGlynn and Rev. Hugh Pentecost, and their advocacy of Henry George's doctrines, as adjuncts of Christianity, has found an imitation in the action of Rev. Thomas W. Ilman, who leaves the pastorate of the Third Universalist church, this city. Mr. Ilman says he will take up the great social questions which relate to the welfare of humanity. He does not fully coincide with Mr. George's proposals, but he does agree with him that it is the duty of Christian ministers to devote themselves to these problems.

Wonderful Vitality of a Girl. MT. HOLLY, N. J., March 16.—The corner's inquest on Mary C. Anderson, the girl shot February 7, and who died yesterday, was held to-day. The autopsy discovered the ball in the middle of the brain. The jury charged Barclay Peak, her cousin, with the murder.

A Heavy Assignment. CINCINNATI, March 16.—The Boyd Manufacturing company, doing business at Ripley, O., has assigned, with liabilities of $250,000, giving preferences for $175,000.

Chinese Quail in California. Five hundred of the small Chinese quail from the Swatow district have been imported here and distributed in lots of 100 on the ranches of gentlemen interested in sporting. They are not more than half the size of California quail and are somewhat smaller than New England quail. They are rapid flyers and it takes a good shot to bring them down.—San Francisco Correspondence.

Tobacco in the Crimea. The tobacco cultivation is rapidly progressing in the Crimea, where successful attempts have been made to acclimatize the best Turkish kinds of tobacco, which are also the least known in Russia, such as known under the names of Basmia, Persiand, Oujoundjova and Yenidje.—New Orleans Times Democrat.

Death of Mrs. R. B. Lovel.

Died, in this city, yesterday, about 12 m., Mrs. Elizabeth Wood Calvert Lovel, wife of Hon. R. B. Lovel. It is seldom we are called upon to record a death, the knowledge of which will produce more universal regret in the circles in which she moved than this. Mrs. Lovel was a native of this county, and belonged to the large and highly respected family of Calverts. She was born January 27, 1837. In her early womanhood she was united in marriage to her husband, and for almost thirty-one years she made him one of the best wives that ever blessed a truly generous man's heart and home. She so reared her children as to leave the impress of her elevated christian character upon them, and they to-day rise up and call her blessed. The children who were hers by marriage are equally afflicted with her own, and to tell over her virtues is a pleasant theme to them.

Mrs. Lovel was a woman of clear mind and strong convictions, which made the influence of her personality almost irresistible. All that she had, she had consecrated to God early in life, and her christian character was one of the most beautiful men are ever permitted to see. The extent of her charities will never be estimated till the "books are opened at the judgment seat of Christ." No one ever held out an empty hand in vain to her, or appealed to her sympathies without meeting the heartiest response. "The law of the Lord was her delight, and in his law did she meditate day and night."

During all the many months of her painful illness, she was never heard to make a complaint, thereby demonstrating the power of the christian religion over physical suffering. She died as she had lived, and her last words were, "My name is written there." The entire community extend to the honored family their sympathies, while her friends all feel that the world will be darker now that she is gone, but heaven will be brighter by her presence.

The funeral will be held to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in the M. E. Church, South, services by Rev. D. A. Beardsley, after which the remains will be laid at rest in the Maysville cemetery.

Removal.

Dr. G. M. Williams has removed his dental office to building on Third street, adjoining Dr. Shackelford's office.

Patti.

Adelina Patti will appear in a grand operatic concert at Music Hall, Cincinnati, next Saturday afternoon. The Kentucky Central will sell round trip tickets to Covington, at all stations, to parties of five or more, at the low rate of one fare, tickets good going on morning train and returning on fast line, leaving Covington at 8:25 p. m., March 19. A limited number of first choice seats have been reserved for patrons of the Kentucky Central, and can be had upon application to agents of the company.

"Neck and Neck."

"Neck and Neck" is one of the most stirring melodramas of the present century. It is strong and well defined in the outlines, clear in its construction, vivid in its coloring, with climaxes natural and effective. It is written in vigorous English. Its hero is a man. Its heroine is of woman womanly. The comedy element is particularly strong, but kept well subjective to the dramatic form of the plot.

E. T. Stetson and his excellent company played the great melodrama of "Neck and Neck" at Havlin's Theater last evening. The house was crowded and the audience very enthusiastic. The story is a thrilling one and well told. The leading role of Walter Wilmarth was presented by the star, Mr. Stetson, and if one were to judge by the wild applause that greeted him at times, he is fully as popular as ever.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Stetson and company will appear at the opera house next Friday and Saturday night, and also in a grand matinee Saturday afternoon. Reserved seats now on sale at Taylor's.

The contractors have distributed a large number of piles along Front street to be used in building the railroad.

CAPTAIN WILLIAM JUHLING, of the Juhling Coal Company, was here yesterday on a business trip. He recently sold 200,000 bushels of coal to a party at Parkersburg to be delivered this season.

In clearing away the debris of the river banks that recently caved in at Augusta, a large number of curious skulls and bones were discovered. Upon examination they have been found to be the relics of aborigines, and some of the skulls are said to be large enough to have belonged to an eight-foot man.

THE Louisville Courier Journal says: "Rev. E. L. Powell, of Maysville, was greeted at the First Christian Church by a large audience Sunday morning. The great expectations superinduced by Dr. Hobbs' announcements were fully met. All were delighted. After the sermon several persons were received into fellowship."

News was received here late last evening, by relatives, that Elliott Hord, of Indianapolis, died yesterday at Cambridge, Mass. He was the son of Hon. Oscar B. Hord, formerly of this city. Deceased was about twenty-six years old, and was a young man of bright prospects. He had been attending law school at Cambridge since last fall, and would have completed the course this spring.

"Yes; I shall break the engagement," she said, folding her arms and looking defiant; "it is really too much trouble to converse with him; he's as deaf as a post, and talks like he had a mouthful of mush. Besides, the way he hawks and spits is disgusting." "Don't break the engagement for that; tell him to take Dr. Sage's Catarrh remedy. It will cure him completely." "Well, I'll tell him. I do hate to break it off, for in all other respects he's quite too charming." Of course it cured his catarrh.

KING & FITZGERALD, railroad contractors, met with a misfortune yesterday. One of their mules had a leg crushed near the ankle, and will probably have to be shot. The accident happened at Front and Market streets. A colored hand was engaged in distributing some of the large stone to be used in building the road, along Front street. When rounding the corner at Front and Market the stone slipped forward and fell, doing some damage to the wagon and breaking the mule's leg. The animal was taken to a stable in the West End.

JAMES LYONS, who lives on Phister avenue, in rear of the jail, was arrested last evening about 7 o'clock by Marshal Heflin, and lodged in the station house to answer the charge of robbing William Clift of $4.45. Clift lives near Lewisburg. Lyons and Clift were at Guilfoyle's saloon at the time named. Martin Guilfoyle suspected something was wrong from Lyons' actions, and had Captain Heflin summoned. Lyons was searched before he was taken from the saloon and the money was found on his person. Part of it was concealed in his boot-leg. He claims he worked for the cash in the past week or so, and denies the charge of stealing it. The examining trial takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Changes on the Kentucky Central.

Sherman Otto has taken Conductor Martin's old run between here and Richmond, and Mr. Myers has succeeded Conductor Collier between here and Lexington. The Covington correspondent of the Enquirer says: "The conductors who resigned by request are Messrs. James Winston, Thomas McLaughlin, Lon Haley, George Collier, John Martin and Mr. Dunn. Those promoted to be conductors are Messrs. McCarty, Seaman, Marmon and Butler. The two new conductors are Messrs. Copp and Parker, the last named being from Indianapolis. Marmon has charge of the Maysville Division, and Seaman will run between Covington and Roland, Ky. Messrs. Mattock and Farmer have not resigned. It can be said here that none of the conductors resigned on account of a reduction of pay."

Personal.

Daniel Williams has returned from his trip through the South.

L. T. Sharpe, of the firm of Church & Co., New York, is in the city with his old friends.

Col. Richard Dawson returned yesterday from a sojourn of several weeks at Carrollton, Mo.

Dr. J. W. Ishmael, of Mt. Olivet, who has been at New York City attending the Post Graduate Medical College during the winter, returned last night with his family. They have been well, and look improved by their trip.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

The sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 3,331 hhds., with receipts for the same period of 3,422 hhds. Sales on the market since January 1, amount to 28,906 hhds. We have had another week of large receipts and sales. Prices for all grades of burley (common trash excepted) were decidedly better until the latter part of the week, since then they have been irregularly lower on all grades from medium fillers down. Everything from medium fillers up, of decided character, have been firm. Common trash is possibly a bid or two stronger than they were the previous week, but are not quotably higher. No material change in old burleys.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for new burley:

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., New York.

TO LADIES

—WHO—

WEAR FINE SHOES:

We have received a line of French Kid Hand-made Button which is superior to any ever sold by us before. The material is strictly first-class and selected with great care. They fit as perfectly as a kid glove. They require no breaking in, but are as comfortable when first worn as an old shoe. To ladies who have tender feet and who have had difficulty in securing a neat-fitting shoe, we can recommend these as being especially desirable.

INTERSTATE COMMISSION.

THE APPOINTMENTS NOT YET AGREED UPON BY THE PRESIDENT.

Six Hundred Applicants for the Position. Reasons for the Delay in Filling the Commission—Death of an Old and Trusted Watchman—Capital Affairs.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—It is stated at the White House that the interstate appointments cannot be made at once, not having been finally agreed upon. The president is still undecided as to the full personnel of the commission. There are probably five or six hundred persons who have made applications for places on the commission, and among them are as many Republicans as Democrats.

In making his selection of the two Republicans to be placed on the commission the president, it is said, has really a larger list to select from than that provided by the applicants of his own party. He is extremely desirous of making such appointments as will bear all just and fair criticism, and this is the main reason why he has delayed action in the matter so long.

The Richest Man in China. WASHINGTON, March 16.—Mr. Chang Yen Hoon, the Chinese minister, sat for some photographs yesterday. He was accompanied by his interpreter and two or three lady friends, who were anxious to see the operation. His servants carried up to the photographer's room two or three trunks and several smaller cases in which were ten or a dozen changes of costume.

The minister was "one" in each of these and in many different positions. He wore a silk cap, in the center of which was a large diamond about the size of a hazelnut. The cap fitted so closely that the diamond looked like a huge seal set in his skull. Around his neck was a necklace of three chains, each of which was about a yard long, composed of precious stones, every sixth of which was a diamond. His interpreters said the aggregate value of the jewels, which adorned his person, was about a million dollars. The different costumes were composed of the richest silks and satins, embroidered with gold and trimmed with richest furs. Mr. Chang Yen Hoon is said to be the richest man in China.

Secretary Endicott Not to Resign. WASHINGTON, March 16.—At the White House and war department, the published reports of Secretary Endicott's resignation in consequence of a disagreement with the president about army details are declared to be unfounded nonsense. A question has arisen between the secretary of war and the surgeon general in reference to details of officers to that bureau, and the surgeon general has, it is understood, appealed to the president. It is, however, positively denied that the president has shown any disposition to overrule any action of the secretary, or that there is the slightest reason for, or probability of, a disagreement between the president and Mr. Endicott. Mr. Endicott left this city for Boston on Friday last, saying he would return on Thursday next. He frequently makes such trips, and his absence is no justification for the published rumors.

Reception Incident. WASHINGTON, March 16.—One of the features of the White House reception yesterday was the presentation to the president of a book on the election of the president directly by popular vote. The author, who has come to Washington to reside temporarily, kept in the back ground until the crowd had departed. Then, book in hand, he walked up to the president, made a brief speech explaining its contents, and begged the president to accept it. Mr. Cleveland apparently thought at first that he was at the mercy of a book agent, and looked relieved when he found out his mistake.

"Then you will look at the book at your leisure?" queried the delighted author. "I certainly will," replied the president, as he hugged the little volume under his left arm.

Meeting of Superintendents. WASHINGTON, March 16.—The annual meeting of the National department of superintendents met this morning at the National Museum, and was called to order by Hon. Charles S. Young, of Carson City, Nev., the president. District Commissioner Webb delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the city and F. M. Campbell, superintendent of schools at Oakland, Cal., spoke on "Public Education on the Pacific Coast," which was afterwards discussed. This afternoon a paper by Dr. A. J. Rickoff, of Yonkers, N. Y., on "A Teacher's Certificate," occupied the attention of the convention. "Civil Service and the Public Schools" will be discussed next.

Death of Captain Burke. WASHINGTON, March 16.—Capt. Francis P. Burke, died yesterday at his home here. Capt. Burke came to Washington first in the capacity of hostler at the White House, under President Buchanan. During Mr. Lincoln's administration he acted as his coachman and drove the presidential carriage until the day of Mr. Lincoln's death. He was appointed a watchman in the state department in July, 1875, and in April, 1880, through the favor of Secretary Lincoln, who remembered his services to his father, he was made captain of the watch of the building.

Presidential Pardon. WASHINGTON, March 16.—The president has pardoned J. J. C. Dougherty, sentenced for embezzlement from the Baltimore post-office, on the ground that the prisoner is believed to be sincerely penitent, has served most of his time, and that his pardon is recommended by all who were connected with his prosecution.

A Bond Approved. WASHINGTON, March 16.—The bond of $250,000 of S. N. Aldrich, as assistant treasurer at Boston, has been approved by the acting secretary and the solicitor of the treasury. The term of the present incumbent expires April 24 next, and it is supposed he will continue to act until that date.

DONALDSON, Pa., March 16.—Abraham Ernst's steam saw mill, at Goodspring, near here, was totally destroyed by fire last night. A large quantity of lumber was also burned, entailing a heavy loss. About fifty hands are thrown out of employment. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

A Fire in Buffalo. BUFFALO, March 16.—The large four-story building on the corner of North Division and Washington streets, occupied by Miller & Greiner, wholesale grocers, was completely destroyed by fire. The Commercial Advertiser building, on the opposite corner, took fire but was saved from destruction.
